Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and peace! Every year as we enter into this most sacred of weeks, the Church offers her priests, religious, and all who take up the practice of the Liturgy of the Hours, a beautiful sermon from St. Andrew of Crete, an 8th century bishop, theologian, homilist, and hymnographer. For me, it really helps to set the tone for the week ahead as we hasten toward Calvary to follow our Lord along the way of the Cross. I offer it to you today for your edification:

“Let us go together to meet Christ on the Mount of Olives. Today he returns from Bethany and proceeds of his own free will toward his holy and blessed passion, to consummate the mystery of our salvation. He who came down from heaven to raise us from the depths of sin, to raise us with himself, we are told in Scripture, ‘above every sovereignty, authority, and power and every other name that can be named,’ now comes of his own free will to make his journey to Jerusalem. He comes without pomp or ostentation. As the psalmist says: ‘He will not dispute or raise his voice to make it heard in the streets.’ He will be meek and humble, and he will make his entry in simplicity.

Let us run to accompany him as he hastens toward Jerusalem, and imitate those who met him then, not by covering his path with garments, olive branches or palms, but by doing all we can to prostrate ourselves before him by being humble and by trying to live as he would wish. Then we shall be able to receive the Word at his coming, and God, whom no limits can contain, will be within us.

In his humility Christ entered the dark regions of our fallen world and he is glad that he became so humble for our sake, glad that he came and lived among us and shared in our nature in order to raise us up again to himself. And even though we are told that he has now ascended above the highest heavens—the proof, surely, of his power and godhead—his love for man will never rest until he has raised our earthbound nature from glory to glory, and made it one with his own in heaven.

So let us spread before his feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in him. We who have been baptized into Christ must ourselves be the garments that we spread before him. Now that the crimson stains of our sins have been washed away in the saving waters of baptism and we have become white as pure wool, let us present the conqueror of death, not with mere branches of palms but the real rewards of his victory. Let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join today in the children’s holy song: ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is the king of Israel.’”

God bless and keep you all! I am praying for you and your loved ones in a special way this Holy Week. May you encounter anew “the breadth and length and height and depth” (Ephesians 3:18) of our Lord’s personal, unconditional love!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Scott Scheiderer

Parochial Administrator of OLHC, SA, SEMJB, and SMA

I will go to prepare a place for you? John 14:2*

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL PRAYER

What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in Holy Hours of prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at the Banquet of Life.

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS 2024

At the 10th National Eucharistic Congress, our Catholic family will gather to experience profound, personal renewal through the power of Christ's love. Like a new Pentecost, this transformation will flow out from Indianapolis to bring revival in our communities as the Church returns to her first love - the source and summit of our faith.

Every day at the Congress is designed to facilitate this life-changing encounter with Jesus, regardless of where you are in your faith journey.

Jesus Christ will be there. Will you?

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

HUMILITY

While Jesus was experiencing crucifixion, suffering the death of one who was a criminal, people reviled Him saying, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself, if you are the Son of God, [and] come down from the cross!" St. Thomas Aquinas once wrote that the cross exemplifies every virtue. Humility was certainly among those virtues. Just as Jesus experienced a most humble birth in a manger surrounded by animals, He also suffered a most humble death. The King of Kings and Lord of Lords is judged by a governor and suffers the death of a criminal. He could have come down from the cross and freed Himself of the pain. Instead, He humbled Himself and died for you, for me, for all people. One of the best responses we can have as we gaze upon the Crucified One is silence and contemplation. We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You, because, by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world.
